INTERSESSION (for campers attending both Aleph and Bet sessions)

Campers staying for the full summer may choose to remain at Camp JRF in between the two sessions (July 25-27). These intersession days are fully programmed. Campers who remain in camp for these two days may be visited between the closing day of Session Aleph, Sunday, July 25, after 11:30am, and returned to camp no later than 7:00pm on Monday, July 27. When you pick up your child, you must sign them out at the camp office and let us know what time you will be returning.

My child is registered for the full summer and will:

Stay for Intersession. I/We will be visiting him/her.

Stay for intersession. I/We will NOT be visiting him/her.

GO HOME for Intersession. I will pick my camper up on closing day of Session Aleph (Sunday, July 25) and return him/her to Camp JRF on opening day of Session Bet (Tuesday, July 27).

BAR/BAT MITZVAH REVIEW

If your camper will be celebrating a Bar or Bat Mitzvah before December 2010 and you would like bar/bat mitzvah review during Camp, please fill out the following:

Date of Bar/Bat Mitzvah: _____ Congregation: _____

Tutors at camp are only able to review materials that your camper has already learned. New material will not be taught. Campers must bring all necessary materials to camp, as well as a note from an instructor at home explaining specifically what materials should be reviewed.

GRANDPARENTS

We only allow current camp parents and grandparents to view pictures and news reports on our secure website during the summer. We also like to make grandparents feel a part of the greater Camp JRF family and may send them some special mailings geared specifically to them. Please provide your child's grandparent(s) name(s) and contact information below.

PERMISSIONS

1. I hereby give my child permission to attend Camp JRF.
2. I hereby give permission for my child to participate fully in all camp activities.
3. I hereby give permission for my child to leave the camp grounds to participate in camp programs.
4. I hereby agree to hold Camp JRF, the Jewish Reconstructionist Camping Corporation, and the Jewish Reconstructionist Federation harmless from any liability except for those camp-sponsored activities.
5. I understand that part of the camping experience involves activities and group interactions that may be new to my child, and that they come with uncertainties beyond what my child may be used to dealing with at home. I am aware of these risks, and I am assuming them on behalf of my child. I realize that no environment is risk-free, and so I have instructed my child on the importance of abiding by the camp's rules, and my child and I both agree that he or she is familiar with these rules and will obey them.
6. This agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Pennsylvania. Any disagreement, claim, cause of action, or suit of any nature whatsoever between the parties may only be brought in the Court of Common Pleas located within the County of Wayne.
7. I acknowledge and agree that Camp JRF may use photographs, videotape, audio recordings, and/or written accounts of camp activities in which my child may appear in the presentation of its camping program to the community.
8. I understand that the Camp Director reserves the right to dismiss any camper without refund who:
 - a) Willfully disregards camp rules, or who endangers the campers' or others' safety;
 - b) Harms him/herself or other members of the community;
 - c) Destroys camp property or the property of another member of the camp community;
 - d) Requires greater supervision than can reasonably be offered by the camp;
 - e) Does not follow the Camp JRF Covenant of Behavior;
 - f) Acts in any way which the Camp Director, in his sole discretion, finds to be detrimental to the camp community.
